MEDWAY COUNTRY MANOR SKILLED NURSING & REHABILITATION AWARDED ACCREDITATION FROM JOINT COMMISSION

Medway, MA, 05/01/2010 – By demonstrating compliance with the Joint Commission's national standards for health care quality and safety, Medway Country Manor Skilled Nursing & Rehabilitation has once again earned the Joint Commission's Gold Seal of Approval™.

"We sought accreditation for our organization because we want to demonstrate our commitment to resident safety and quality care," says John Peters III, Executive Director "We view obtaining Joint Commission accreditation as another step toward achieving continued excellence."

"Accreditation standards exceed federal and state requirements," says Gina Val Zimmermann, senior executive director, Business Development, the Joint Commission. "Furthermore, because this is a voluntary program, accreditation represents Medway Country Manor's decision to be recognized for its efforts to providing safe, quality care."

The Joint Commission conducted an unannounced, on-site evaluation of Medway Country Manor. The accreditation award recognizes Medway Country Manor's dedication to complying with the Joint Commission's state-of-the-art standards on a continuous basis.

Founded in 1951, the Joint Commission seeks to continuously improve the safety and quality of care provided to the public through the provision of health care accreditation and related services that support performance improvement in health care organizations. The Joint Commission evaluates and accredits nearly 15,000 health care organizations and programs in the United States, including more than 8,000 hospitals and home care organizations, and more than 6,800 other health care organizations that provide long term care, assisted living, behavioral health care, laboratory and ambulatory care services. The Joint Commission also accredits health plans, integrated delivery networks, and other managed care entities. In addition, the Joint Commission provides certification of disease-specific care programs, primary stroke centers and health care staffing services. An independent, not-for-profit organization, the Joint Commission is the nation's oldest and largest standards-setting and accrediting body in health care.

Medway Country Manor Skilled Nursing & Rehabilitation provides both long-term care and short-term, transitional rehabilitation care, as well as outpatient rehabilitation in its on-site Generations Outpatient Wellness & Rehabilitation Center. Both Medway Country Manor and Generations are locally owned and operated by the Peters family of Milford.

Medway Country Manor is located at 115 Holliston Street in Medway. They can be reached by telephone at 508-533-6634 or via their websites www.medwaymanor.com and www.generationsrehab.com.
